An unexpected oasis of trees and lakes, the Qu'Appelle Valley, located 11 miles from the KOA, cuts through the prairie in scenic southeastern Saskatchewan. Just off Trans-Canada Highway 1, the Indian Head KOA offers 18 acres of beautiful lawns and flowers with shade trees at every site. At the campground, enjoy the heated swimming pool, free Wi-Fi, basketball, volleyball, soccer, horseshoes, ladder ball, giant chess and checkers, target kick soccer, GameCube, air hockey and more. Just 1/2 mile away, you can find a great golf course. Next to KOA is a unique restaurant with a gallery and gift shop. Be sure to visit the many attractions in the city of Regina, just 35 minutes west of the KOA.

Located southeast corner of Indian Head on north side of Trans-Canada Hwy 1.

Turn north at the east exit into Indian Head at the Shell Gas & Convenience Centre corner, cross railway tracks to KOA.
